Containing the freſheſt Advices Foreign and Domeſtick.

From THURSDAY January 1, to THURSDAY January 8, 1741.

The following is the Subſtance of the Anſwer made by the States General to the Declaration of France, in relation to the Departure of the Breſt and Toulon Squadrons.

THE States General therein thanked the King of France for the Reſpect he ſhew'd them, in communicating to them the Reaſons which engaged his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty to ſend the Squadrons he had caus'd to be equipp'd at Breſt and Toulon into America. But their High Mightineſſes declar'd that they had conceiv'd Hopes, that the Court of France, in Purſuance of its Promiſe, would have informed them what it's Squadrons were really intended for, before it had order'd their Departure, ſince this Court will without Doubt call to Mind, that their High Mightineſſes, who were always attentive to the Preparations which were making at Breſt, Toulon, and in the other Ports of France, and were fearful of what might be the Conſequences, had by their Embaſſador made known their Apprehenſions upon this Subject to his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, upon which the Miniſters of that Monarch poſitively aſſur'd that Ambaſſador, that if, contrary to the preſent Intentions of the King, Circumſtances ſhould oblige him to put his Squadrons to Sea, the Republick ſhould not only be adverti's'd thereof, but that it ſhould likewiſe be acquainted with what they were going about: That this Thing, however, had not been done, in Conformity of the above Promiſe, ſeeing it was not till ſeveral Days after the Squadrons had ſail'd that his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty had caus'd it to be made known to their High Mightineſſes, and at the ſame Time caus'd a Declaration to be made to them of the Reaſons which engag'd him thereto. That notwithſtanding the Reaſons alledg'd for juſtifying this Step, their High Mightineſſes can by no Means approve of it; ſince the Republick ſtill ſuffers the ſame Grievances from Spain as thoſe complain'd of by Great Britain, and which have been the Occaſion of the preſent War. That notwithſtanding the repeated Inſtances and Repreſentations of the States General, they have not been able to obtain the Satisfaction they have ſo often demanded of his Catholick Majeſty, in relation to the ſtopping and taking a great Number of Dutch Ships; that further, their High Mightineſſes can by no Means perſuade themſelves, that the Step taken by his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty, in ſending his Squadrons to America, can anſwer the End he propoſes by it, which is pretended thereby to facilitate an Accommodation between the two Powers at War. If nevertheleſs this Means ſhou'd prove effectual for bringing about ſo deſirable an End, the Thing would be infinitely agreeable to their High Mightineſſes: But that they could not help recommending to his Majeſty, rather to continue to act by his Mediation, than by the Way of Arms, to procure the Re-eſtabliſhment of Peace.

Genoa, Oct. 1. We have Advices from France, that at Breſt they are equipping a new Squadron of ſix or ſeven Men of War of which Mr. Admiral Roquefeuillie is to have the Command. Many think that they are deſign'd to obſerve Commodore Anſon's Squadron, which ſet ſail lately for America.

Madrid, Oct. 1. Whilſt the Workmen imploy'd in building an additional Wing at the Pardo were at Work, the Body of that Building fell in ſo ſuddenly, that forty or fifty were buried under its Ruins. The new Squadron equipping at Cadiz is to conſiſt of Eleven Ships of War, and will be ready to put to Sea ſome time next Month. Three or four Thouſand Seamen from different Ports of this Kingdom, are on the Road to Cadiz. It's reported that the Troops in Majorca are to be reinforced with 15000 Men, that we may be able to undertake the Siege of Port-Mahon, in caſe of Need.

Bruſſels, Oct. 13. They write from Flanders, that the Poſt Maſter of one of the Sea Ports there has been taken up by an Order of the Court of France, as were alſo the Lieutenant-Governor of Port Louis, and the Directors at the Ports of Breſt and Roan.

Paris, Oct. 15. Letters from Smyrna, by the Way of Vienna, ſay, that Thamas Kouli-Kan has ſent Letters written with his own Hand, to all the French Conſuls in the ſeveral Ports where the Perſians are uſed to carry on Trade and Navigation, to inform them that he has reſolv'd to fit out a formidable Fleet, as well to open an advantageous Trade to his Subjects, as to fight their common Enemies; declaring at the ſame Time that he would impoſe ſuch ſtrict Laws on the Officers of his Navy, that they never ſhould deviate from the Reſpect due to the French Flag, having on the Contrary given Orders to aſſiſt us on all Occaſions: Kouli-Kan concludes with deſiring our Conſuls to acquaint the Court of France, as ſoon as poſſible, with the Purity of his Sentiments.

Leghorn, Oct. 3. The Maſter of a Veſſel which arriv'd here Yeſterday in Five Days from Toulon, reports, that a great Number of Seamen were arriv'd there, in order to man Eight Men of War which they are fitting out (perhaps to convoy the Britiſh Chanuil) with all poſſible Diligence. Our Advices from Breſt and Rochefort confirm that they are arming in thoſe Parts with the ſame Diligence.

LONDON, October 9.

By Letters from France we are inform'd, that that Nation is in a very wretched Way, having had a very poor Harveſt all over the Kingdom; ſo that Bread is near 6 d. a Pound, and all other Proviſions exceſſive dear: That ſeveral Bankers, Merchants, and eminent Tradeſmen, daily fail for want of Trade, to which the Money that is detain'd in the Spaniſh Fleets and Galleons had put an entire Stagnation.

The gallant Commodore Brown is return'd in the Greenwich Man of War, from the Weſt Indies: From whom, the Publick has Reaſon to hope, ſuch Lights will be receiv'd, with reſpect to the Conduct of the War, in thoſe Parts, as will either, effectually ſtrike all future Cavils on that Subject; or enable the Legiſlature to do Juſtice to their Conſtituents, by calling thoſe Perſons to a ſevere Account, who, ſhould be found guilty of exhauſting the Expence, or delaying the Deciſion of a Quarrel, in which both the Intereſt and Honour of the Nation are ſo deeply concern'd.

Yeſterday

Yeſterday

Yesterday was held a Board of Admiralty, when their Lordships were pleas'd to put into Commission the Lightning Bomb Ketch, and gave the Command thereof to Mr. A'Court, Brother to Pierce A'Court Esq; Member of Parliament for Heytsbury in Wilts.

Oct. 11. We hear that Orders are gone for some of the smallest Men of War to go out on a Cruise, to protect the Trade.

By every French Mail we expect that Lord Waldegrave has made most lively Remonstrances at Versailles on Occasion of the Reparation of Dunkirk: It being concluded, on all Hands, that so manifest a Breach of Faith cannot be brook'd on our Side, or excused on theirs. Whence it follows, that no Answer can be so dexterously framed, by that insidious Court, but must necessarily open our Eyes, and we shall either instantly see that formidable Place a second Time in Ruins, or be convinc'd they will first endeavour to ruin US.

October 14. Yesterday Morning about Two o'Clock a Messenger arriv'd at the Prince of Wales's at Norfolk House with an Account of the Death of Magdalen Augusta, of Anhalt Zerbest, Dutchess of Saxe-Gotha, Mother to her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales.

'Tis said the Danish Minister's Business at Hanover was to negociate a Marriage between the Hereditary Prince of Denmark and a Princess of England.

The Printing Presses in Holland are said to be loaded with Political Tracts, on the present State of Affairs in Europe.

This Day there was a grand Council at St. James's when the Lords of the Regency deliver'd up their Commissions

They write from Madrid, that a French Ship which arrived at Cadiz the 11th of September, reported, that Admiral Haddock was come back to Gibraltar with part of his Squadron; the rest of it remains at Port-Mahon: And that upon Advice, that the English were meditating an Enterprize upon Buenos Ayres, or some Places in the South-Sea, the Court had ordered six Men of War to be fitted up at Cadiz, and they say, they have since received Advice that they are sailed to those Parts.

Other Advices from Madrid say, that those six Ships have not yet sail'd, and that it is thought they are to join the Squadron actually fitting out at Cadiz, and that they have received Advice, that the Toulon Squadron passed the Streights of Gibraltar the 15th of last Month, steering with a fair Wind for West-Indies. As they have heard nothing of the Brest Squadron since it appeared off Cape Finister; they don't doubt but is also gone to America

Oct. 16. This Day the Lord Mayor, fifteen Aldermen, the Recorder, and one of the Sheriffs, waited on his Majesty at St. James's with their Address, and received a most gracious Answer

We hear the Fleet under Sir Chaloner Ogle, and the Troops commanded by the Lord Cathcart sailed for the West Indies last Night ——To the Joy of the whole Nation; and whose Arrival there will be of no less Satisfaction to the renowned Admiral VERNON, who with this Assistance will shew the most Christian King, that CONQUEST is no longer to be retarded.

This Evening the above News was confirm'd, with this Circumstance, that they departed in such a Hurry that they left near 40 Tuns of Water behind them, which had been fill'd, but not shipp'd.

'Tis said the new Regiments of Foot and Horse to be raised toward the next Spring are to consist of Eighteen in Number.—— Mons. how do you like this?

All our Letters from Bourdeaux are fill'd with melancholy Accounts of the Misery of the Frenchmen there, thro' the great Scarcity of Provisions; and that when the last Post came away they had not a Barrel of Beef in that great City; but that they hourly expected Relief from Ireland ——Their Expectation however, will be in a great Measure defeated by the general Embargo, which is now laid on all the Shipping there.

The Secret Expedition.

To crown our Hopes, at length your Fleet appear'd,
Old England glory'd, and all Europe fear'd;
Revenge we thought now hanging over Spain;
But kind Sir J—— soon put them out of Pain:
A idle Farce, the Sequel plainly told,
You fought not Victory, Sir J——, 'twas G—d.

Oct. 18. Letters from Paris say, that the Earl of Waldegrave is in so bad a State of Health, that his Physicians have advis'd him to return to England, though 'tis much doubted whether he'll recover; and he's soon expected over.

Williamsburg, Virginia, Nov. 7.

By a Vessel lately arrived in James-River, from Jamaica, we have Advice, that the Spaniards had already denied Entrance to one of our Men of War at Porto-Bello, and that they were repairing the Fortifications of that Place: Upon which, Admiral Vernon ordered 2 or 3 Men of War to go and attack them, to prevent their carrying on their Works.

That Admiral Vernon had continually kept several Men of War upon the Cruise, which had taken several Spanish Prizes: But that, on the other Hand, the Spanish Privateers fitted out of St. Diego on Cuba, had intercepted and taken many of our Vessels; that there were near 20 Sail of English Vessels carried Prizes into St. Diego; and that the Masters of some of them were got to Jamaica.

Coll. Benjamin Harrison of James-River, has fitted out a fine large Sloop with 20 Guns, and Men answerable, which is to sail in a few Days, with a Letter of Marque to make Reprizals on the Spaniards. We wish this laudable Example may be follow'd by other Gentlemen of Spirit and Fortune in this Colony.

A Letter from Mr. HUGH BRYAN to a Friend.

November 20, 1740.

Dear SIR,

I Was laſt Night ſhock'd with the melancholly News of the South Eaſt Part of Charles Town being burnt down on Tueſday How deplorable is the Condition of many there, that are in a few Hours reduc'd to want of Bread! Surely God's juſt Judgments are upon us — Is there Evil befallen to a City, and the Lord hath not done it? ſaith the Prophet. We have been harden'd under the Sun-ſhine, the bounteous Diſpenſations of his Providence; and tho' for ſome Years paſt, he hath at divers Times been ſcourging of us, by Drought; by repeated Diſeaſes on Man and Beaſt; by Inſurrections of our Slaves, and lately by Baffling ſhamefully our Enterprize againſt our Enemy, ſo as to make us a By-Word and an Hiſſing among the Heathen that are round about us; yet we have not laid it to Heart to turn to HIM As are the People, ſo are the Prieſts: Every one ſeeking after Gain; nouriſhing their Hearts as in a Day of Slaughter; and few, very few, ſay within themſelves, wherefore hath the Lord done theſe Things? or turn to ſeek unto the Hand that hath ſmitten us O! that this fiery Diſpenſation may now lead us to Repentance, and truly humble us before GOD, that the Fury of his Anger may turn away from us, and that we be not utterly conſumed! How ought we every one to mourn and lament over our Iniquities, and the Iniquities of our Province and Nation; and lift up our Hearts with our Hands to God in the Heavens, with continual Interceſſions for ourſelves and People, that he may give us true Faith and Repentance; forgive all our Iniquities, and incline our Hearts to be intirely devoted to keep his Laws, and to glorify his Holy Name; that He may incline, rule and direct the Hearts of our King and all in Authority, ſo that they may faithfully and duly execute Juſtice, and maintain true Religion and Godlineſs; and that He may inſpire all Miniſters of his holy Word and Ordinances with heavenly Wiſdom and Grace, that they may underſtand his Will and faithfully teach, exhort and reprove, both by Example and Precept, in much Love and Lowlineſs of Mind. O how great will their Judgment be who do the Work of the Lord negligently, and ſpeak leaſingly, and cry Peace, Peace, when there is no Peace, deceiving precious Souls and cauſing them to ſleep in their Sins to Damnation. Many, too many ſuch are crept into Chriſt's viſible Church, for whom we may juſtly take up Jeremiah's Lamentation, and ſay, The Prophets have ſeen vain and fooliſh Things for thee, and they have not diſcover'd unto thee thine Iniquity, Lam ii 14. Many indeed in our Day have ſeen vain and fooliſh Things; their Hearts have run after their Covetouſneſs, and they have delighted themſelves in the fooliſh and and vain Enjoyment of worldly Goods and Pleaſures, nouriſhing and indulging themſelves in the ſame Paſſions, Tempers and Delights with other Wordly minded Men, and by their Practices have made the Commandments and Doctrines of the bleſſed JESUS (their pretended Maſter) as much as in them lay of none Effect; for they entice the People to follow their Example, and depart from God: Thus do they pretendedly take upon them a Commiſſion from the Lord of Hoſts to fight the Devil's Battles, and, Judas-like, betray our Lord and Maſter with pretended Kiſſes of Friendſhip. —— O! how ſore will the Puniſhment of ſuch negligent Watchmen be! Ezek xxxiii 6 But if the Watchman ſee the Sword come, and blow not the Trumpet, and the People be not warned; if the Sword come and take any Perſon from among them, he is taken away in his Iniquity, but his Blood will I require at the Watchman's Hand, ſaith the LORD Who there ſheweth EZEKIEL his Duty from the 7th Verſe, ſaying, So thou, O Son of Man, I have ſet thee a Watchman unto the Houſe of Iſrael: Therefore thou ſhalt hear the Word at my Mouth and warn them from me. — When I ſay unto the Wicked, O wicked Man, thou ſhalt ſurely die; if thou doſt not ſpeak to warn the Wicked from his Way, that wicked Man ſhall die in his Iniquity, but his Blood will I require at thine Hand — See JER. xxiii 1. EZEK xxxiv 2d to the 10th Woe to the Shepherds or Paſtors that ſcatter the Sheep; that feed themſelves, and do not feed the Sheep And JER. xxiii 21. I have not ſent theſe Prophets, yet they ran, ſaith the LORD; I have not ſpoken to them, yet they prophеſied. And again, Verſe 30. I am againſt the Prophets that ſteal my Word every Man from his Neighbour, ſaith the LORD: Theſe all ſerve for Gain They are Thieves and Robbers who come not in by the Door of the Sheep fold, but climb up the Wall by carnal Helps, and get in, to prey on the Sheep; neither follow the Foot-ſteps of our true Shepherd, but covet the Fleece only How many poor careleſs Souls have we in every Pariſh that ſtand in Need of being informed of their Danger, and of the abſolute Neceſſity of being born again of GOD, and having CHRIST's perſonal Righteouſneſs imputed to them, before they can have any well-grounded Hope of being finally ſaved! How many within a few Miles of their Teachers die in their Sins, without being warned or exhorted to come to CHRIST by Faith! The Blood of ſuch will be required at their Teacher's Hands. O! how becoming the Office of Ambaſſadors of JESUS CHRIST would it be, to go forth to every Soul (of their Pariſhioners at leaſt) and make Offers of Peace, and invite them to come in on Goſpel Terms? Can any love

THE extream cold Weather having obstructed the Sale of the Negroes on board the Ship Griffin as advertis'd to be sold the 17th Instant; This is to give Notice that there still remains a parcel of very healthy Negroes to be sold, on board said Ship lying at Mr. Mott's Wharff, where daily Attendance will be given till all are sold, by William Wallace and Comp. and Pringle & Reid.

THese are to desire all Persons indebted to the Estate of Elie Perroneau deceased, to Comp to discharge their respective Debts to Henry and Alexander Perroneau, before the 25th Day of March next, otherwise they may expect (without any further Notice) to be sued by James Michie.

N. B. They have two Lots with convenient Buildings thereon, where they now keep Store at Dare-mud, which is to be SOLD on reasonable Terms.

THIS is to certify, that the Negro-Woman called Dinah, now in the Possession of Mrs Elizabeth Moore, Widow in Charlestown, is not the Property of the said Elizabeth Moore, but belongs to William Alson Mariner, by both Deed and Mortgage, and is recorded in the Secretary's Office in the Book K K Fol 92, 93, therefore this is to forewarn all Persons to purchase or hire the said Negro, they being liable to loose the Purchase, or pay the Hire to the said William Alson, or to his Attorney. Given under my Hand the 18th Day of December, 1740. William Alson

WHereas a Negro-Man named Lancaster, commonly known about Town for a White washer, and Fisherman, has of late imposed upon his Employers, and defrauded me of his Wages; I do therefore advertise all Persons not to employ the said Lancaster, without first agreeing with me, or his producing a proper Ticket, unless they are willing to pay the Fine prescribed by Law; and all Negroes who shall carry the said Lancaster a Fishing, shall be rigorously prosecuted by Elizabeth Smith

How many poor careleſs Souls have we in every Pariſh that ſtand in Need of being informed of their Danger, and of the abſolute Neceſſity of being born again of GOD, and having CHRIST's perſonal Righteouſneſs imputed to them, before they can have any well-grounded Hope of being finally ſaved! How many within a few Miles of their Teachers die in their Sins, without being warned or exhorted to come to CHRIST by Faith! The Blood of ſuch will be required at their Teacher's Hands. O! how becoming the Office of Ambaſſadors of JESUS CHRIST would it be, to go forth to every Soul (of their Pariſhioners at leaſt) and make Offers of Peace, and invite them to come in on Goſpel Terms! Can any love
